

FAMILY LAW

We understand that separation is one of the most difficult times you can experience.

Whether your dispute relates to children, property, or both, we are focused on providing timely, relevant and understanding advice and assistance to help you through this difficult time.

Understanding Your Needs

At such a difficult time, you need someone you can rely on to help see you through. We focus on addressing your needs, and ensure that we act swiftly to secure your, and your children's, best interests.

No Up Front Fee

It is important to be able to act with confidence. We offer the first half hour of our initial consultation free of charge, so that we can assess your needs and ensure that you are well informed.

For certain matters, we can even accept payment at the conclusion when a settlement is effected.

Dispute Resolution

We explore all avenues to resolve matters without the need for Court intervention, including mediation or round table conferences. We then prepare documents recording your agreement, without the need to go to Court.

Should negotiations break down, we ensure that your Court documents are prepared in a timely and efficient manner, to ensure that you get the best result possible.

Pre-Nuptial Agreements

For those who have assets or financial resources prior to their marriage or de facto relationship, it is necessary to consider the financial implications of separation and divorce. A properly worded Pre-Nuptial Agreement (Binding Financial Agreement) can help protect those assets and resources.

We are happy to advise on and prepare such agreements, to ensure that clients are properly protected and fully understand them.

Urgent Applications

Often in family law matters you need urgent advice and assistance. We ensure that we are available to provide this timely advice, including acting on urgent matters such as recovery and/or location orders (return of children), injunctions (protection of property interests) and family violence (intervention orders).
